"Don't practice things until you get them right. Practice them until you can't get them wrong."

Work on nothing but urgent + important
Defend w/out faulting

The best way to gain credibility is to always be prepared.

Cultivating a Winning Culture

- ① Make people feel loved and appreciated
- ② Don't be afraid to share your feelings
- ③ No excuses
- ④ Results driven by everyday behavior + performance
- ⑤ Immediately confront challenges to the culture

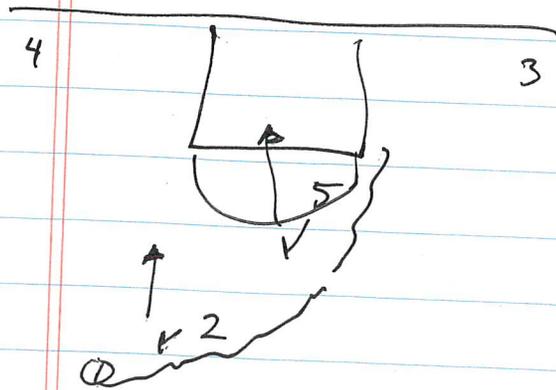

If they deny → backdoor

If they switch → slip

Championship Game Plan

- ① Keep your concentration in the "now"
- ② Bring yourself back when you lose your focus
- ③ Focus on your job
- ④ Have fun
- ⑤ Leave goals out of it
- ⑥ Stay occupied + busy
- ⑦ Control the controllables

Your team is only as strong as its weakest relationship

"2 Twist"

5 on 5 on 5 Cycles w/ :18 shot clock

"Don't let someone else dictate the culture of your program."

Goal: Be the Best practice team in the state

Coaches are asked to hold players to that standard

Leadership involves daily maintenance of + attention to culture, goals and all relationships w/in your program

Players want to know

~~What~~

- ① Can you help me?
- ② Do you care about me?
- ③ Can I trust you?

Helping turn the Tide

- ① Don't personalize any losses
- ② Maintain the same standards as the first day
- ③ Don't isolate yourself from the team
- ④ Don't be consumed by winning the next game
- ⑤ No shortcuts
- ⑥ Be detailed and take accountability for losing
- ⑦ Don't threaten players or launch verbal insults
- ⑧ Don't blame the media
- ⑨ Understand how to evaluate progress
- ⑩ Simple is always better

Don't put a bar up

"Frontierist": Someone who is always trying to find a new boundary to break through

No victim talk; focus on the process, the preparation, and the details, never the outcome.

Self-evaluate once a week
